

SuRo Capital Corp. Second Quarter 2025 Preliminary Investment Portfolio Update

July 8, 2025

Net Asset Value Anticipated to be $9.00 to $9.50 Per Share

Board of Directors Declares $0.25 Per Share Cash Dividend

NEW YORK, July 08, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- SuRo Capital Corp. (“SuRo Capital”, the “Company”, “we”, “us”, and “our”) (Nasdaq: SSSS) today provided the following preliminary update on its investment portfolio for the second quarter ended June 30, 2025.

“The second quarter was SuRo Capital’s best quarter since inception, as measured by the appreciation in NAV per share,” said Mark Klein, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of SuRo Capital. “Our performance was largely driven by the public and private markets recognizing the value proposition of AI infrastructure companies. CoreWeave’s IPO, coupled with its post-IPO performance, led the way. Additionally, OpenAI announced a landmark $40.0 billion financing round at a $300.0 billion post-money valuation, the largest private capital raise ever by a technology company. It has been reported that Canva is preparing for a secondary tender at a $37.0 billion valuation and Colomier Acquisition Corp. II is nearing completion of a proposed merger with GrabAGun, further building on SuRo Capital’s SPAC sponsor strategy success. These developments resulted in an NAV per share uplift of over 35% for the quarter,” Klein added.

Mr. Klein further emphasized, “Beyond these high-profile capital raises, we remain committed to backing some of the world’s most innovative and sought-after private companies ahead of their public market debuts. In April, we completed a new $5.0 million investment in Plaid (through a wholly owned SPV), a market-leading fintech platform that enables secure, seamless connectivity between financial applications and consumers, with an estimated reach of 1 in every 2 adults in the U.S.”

“As a result of this strong performance and momentum across our portfolio, we are pleased to announce that our Board of Directors has declared an initial dividend of $0.25 per share. This dividend is driven by successful monetizations of SuRo Capital’s public securities. Based on ongoing portfolio activity, we anticipate declaring additional dividends throughout the year. As always, we will keep you informed about our dividend strategy as we gain more clarity on the timing and magnitude,” Mr. Klein concluded.

As previously reported, SuRo Capital’s net assets totaled approximately $156.8 million, or $6.66 per share, at March 31, 2025, and approximately $162.3 million, or $6.94 per share at June 30, 2024. As of June 30, 2025, SuRo Capital’s net asset value is estimated to be between $9.00 and $9.50 per share.
